

2013 ANACHEM Award Call for Nominations

The Association of Analytical Chemistry, ANACHEM, is seeking nominations for the 2013 ANACHEM Award. The award honors an outstanding analytical chemist who has made significant contributions to the advancement of analytical chemistry. Consideration will be given not only to the importance of the candidate's research but to other contributions such as mentoring students, service to the professional community, and service as a scientist to society in general.

The ANACHEM award will be presented at the FACSS: SCIX 2013 meeting in Milwaukee, WI, September 29 – October 4, 2013. The ANACHEM award consists of $1,000 and travel expenses to the conference.

Nominators should send the CV of the nominee and two nomination letters. Self-nominations are allowed. Nominee is expected to be present at the meeting at which the award is presented and give the keynote lecture the following year at the Annual ANACHEM/SAS Conference in Detroit, MI. Nominations should be sent to: tmathews@chem.wayne.edu

Deadline: Friday, April 26, 2013
